

Reading steps 22-27

Word Reading	I can build new words by adding suffixes	I can build new words by adding prefixes	I can recognise root words in longer words	I can use strategies read aloud new words	I can use a dictionary to find the meaning of new words	I can read words which don't fit spelling patterns
Comprehension	I can listen to and discuss fiction	I can listen to and discuss non-fiction	I can listen to and discuss poetry	I can listen to and discuss plays	I can listen to and discuss reference texts	I can use features of different texts to find the information I need	I can compare texts to find similarities and differences
	I can use a dictionary to find the meaning of new words	I can read and perform poetry and plays aloud with an awareness of the audience	I can find language in a text that interests the reader	I can recognise different forms of poetry	I can explain what words mean in the text I am reading	I can check that the text makes sense to me	I can ask questions to improve my understanding of a text
	I can use evidence from the text to explain my opinion	I can predict using the text to make predictions	I can pick out key information from more than one paragraph	I can summarise the information in a text	I can identify how the way a text is presented helps me to understand it	I can find and record the important parts of a text	I can talk to others about books I have listened to
	I can talk to others about books I have read myself	I can take turns to listen and speak during discussions					